

PRACTICE ASSIGNMENT

1. Implement the bit vector (using arrays) to represent the sets. Perform the union and difference operations.
2. Using linked list representation perform union, intersection and difference operations on the sets. The linked list may be unordered. To order it, you may write a function to sort the same.